

I just found out about the ballast water survey conducted by the Coast Guard , and I would like to voice my view that the only way to protect ALL our bodies of water is to have a zero discharge standard achieved by ALL foreign and domestic shipping in the United States. At the rate of invasive species entering our country's water ways, there is no future for the fisherys.